

IOWA SALES TAX ON ITEMS SOLD AT FARMERS MARKETS

Q. Are the sales of fruits and vegetables taxable?

A. No. Fruits and vegetables sold for human consumption are exempt from tax. Pumpkins are exempt regardless of their use.

Taxable Beverages

Alcoholic Beverages are taxable

“Alcoholic beverages” means beverages that are suitable for human consumption and contain one-half of one percent or more of alcohol by volume.

Soft Drinks are taxable

“Soft drinks” means nonalcoholic beverages that contain natural or artificial sweeteners.

Bottled Water is taxable if...

it has any flavoring or sweetener.

Taxable Candy

“Candy” means a preparation of sugar, honey or other natural or artificial sweeteners in combination with chocolate, fruits, nuts, or other ingredients or flavorings in the form of bars, drops, or pieces.

Gum is taxable.

Q. Are the sales of vegetable seeds, plants, and fruit trees subject to sales tax?

A. If your customer will be consuming the produce from the seeds, plants or trees, the sale is taxable. If the produce from the seeds, plants or trees are grown by a commercial produce grower or truck gardener primarily for resale, then the sales of seeds, plants or trees that produce food are exempt.

Exempt Beverages

Beverages that contain...

- milk or milk products
- soy, rice, or similar milk substitutes
- greater than 50 percent of vegetable or fruit juice by volume

Bottled Water is exempt if...

it is effervescent or noneffervescent, soda water, mineral water

Exempt “Candy”

“Candy” does not include flour as an ingredient. If it does, it is exempt from Iowa sales tax.

Cookies are not taxable. Neither are items such as Twix, even if sold on the candy shelves. Other examples of items that contain flour are Kit Kat bars, Milky Way bars, M&M Crispy (blue packages), Reese’s sticks.

Taxable Prepared Foods
